Rivertown Commons is above and beyond the rest! Nestled in the heart of historic Stillwater, it is a caring community of seniors and disabled residents that have made it their home.

Each floor is personalized with an accent color and the hallways are equipped with hand rails and extra lighting. Each apartment home has emergency pull cords to alert staff when help is needed.

Common areas on each floor provide opportunity for various activities such as get-togethers, reading, and exercising. Call today for your own personal tour! We would love to show you your new home!
