

Business Briefs

Monday, February 08, 2010

Photo: Clint Reynolds & Ronnie Dees, Realtors with Century 21 Outstanding Homes, present a donation to Johanna Coward, president of the Pine Forest PTA. Century 21 Outstanding Homes is excited about this opportunity to partner with participating Humble ISD organizations through the Outstanding Homes + Outstanding Schools program. For more information, call 281-812-9706.

Dominium Development and Acquisition purchases Humble Memorial Gardens

Dominium Development and Acquisition, LLC recently announced the acquisition of Humble Memorial Gardens, a 75-unit complex providing affordable housing to seniors in Humble. The acquisition was finalized last month and Dominium Management Services has been brought in to manage the facility. The acquisition of Humble Memorial Gardens is Dominium's ninth property ownership in Texas.

"Humble Memorial Gardens was an attractive property that fits in well with our existing portfolio," said Chris Barnes, project partner, Dominium Development and Acquisition. "This is a great acquisition for us and we're excited to expand our presence in Houston, which was a new market for us in the last 12 months."

The Humble Memorial Gardens complex was originally constructed in 2005.

Quality Home Improvements in Kingwood wins

2010 NARI HOUSTON Contractor of the Year

The National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) recently announced the 2010 contractors of the year. An impartial panel of judges who are experts within the industry and associated fields, selected winners based on each entrant's "before and after" photography and project description. Judging was based on problem solving, functionality, aesthetics, craftsmanship, innovation, degree of difficulty and entry presentation.

Quality Home Improvements in Kingwood garnered a win for "best residential kitchen remodel with a total project cost of $40,001 - $80,000."

For more information about Quality Home Improvements, visit www.qhil.com.

Lone Star College System presents inaugural Women's Conference

Lone Star College System and Lone Star Corporate College are holding the first Women's Conference Friday, Feb. 19. The conference, which will be held at LSC-Montgomery from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., is designed to inform, inspire and challenge professional women. The theme is "Step Up and Reach Your Potential." LSCS officials said that the purpose of this inaugural event is to partner established women executives with new business professionals, to encourage them to reach their potential – both in and out of the workplace.

Attendees will hear two keynote presentations – one by Fawn Germer, bestselling author and motivational speaker, and one by Nelda Luce Blair, community leader and chairman of the board of directors for The Woodlands Township.

To register for the conference or for more information, visit LoneStar.edu/womensconference or contact Amy Cooper, program coordinator, at 936-271-6191 or amy.f.cooper@lonestar.edu.

KMCO supports Huffman ISD with $2,500 check presentation

For the second year in a row, KMCO was given the "Educational Outreach Award" by the "Society of Chemical Manufacturers and Affiliates," or SOCMA. This is the second year the award has been presented, and KMCO has won both years. SOCMA's criteria is to identify the company with the greatest commitment to their local school district and community. SOCMA congratulated KMCO as recipient of the "Educational Outreach Award" and "Bronze Award," praising their active participation in the ChemStewards Program, their involvement with various educational programs, and their dedication to continuous improvement.

Photo: Huffman ISD Superintendent Dr. Douglas Killian accepted a $2,500 check from KMCO's Venita Smith, to be used in the best interest of Huffman ISD students. Photo by Kathy Parks

Possibilities for Women Workshop

This workshop, hosted by Jill Hickman Companies, is aimed at helping participants discover a path to clarity and a life of fulfillment. It will be held on Feb. 11 from 8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. at the Lake Houston Area Chamber of Commerce. In a supportive group, determine goals and important action steps. Participants will also create a personal 2010 journey and action map to make the year ahead turn possibilities into realities. The Lake Houston Area Chamber of Commerce is located at 110 W. Main in Humble. For more information or to register, visit www.jillhickman.com/possibilities_workshop.

Let The Tribune help you connect with your community. Tell us about your products and employees, awards, upcoming events or special offers. We'll share the good news with your neighbors. Send submissions to: amcilhany@ourtribune.com.