Dominium Hires Trevor Martinez as Staff Associate

MINNEAPOLIS – June 30, 2016 – Dominium, a leading apartment development and management company, today announced that it has hired Trevor Martinez as a staff associate at its Plymouth, Minn. based headquarters. In his new role, Martinez analyzes the feasibility of affordable housing acquisition and development projects through financial modeling, underwriting, due diligence execution and community outreach. He will ensure the timely, efficient and cost effective execution of these developments through project management, stakeholder communication and construction administration.

Martinez holds a bachelor's degree in management and urban studies from the University of Minnesota and is also the Head Coach of the Hopkins High School Debate team. He was previously a lead consultant at Impact Consulting, with internships at Metro Transit and the Metropolitan Council. Martinez currently lives in Coon Rapids, Minn.
